

Ethnodevelopment in Xingu

In the trails of diversity, human rights and heritage

Seminary of heritage education

Place: University Campus of Altamira

May 27 2011 – Friday

2pm to 4 pm: Lectures and discussions

Prospection and diggings of archaeological sites in the BR 230

Denise Schaan (PPGA-UFPA)

4 pm to 6 pm – Roundtable: Heritage education in discussion

Archaeology and Heritage

Eliane Sousa Faria (Ethnodevelopment College – UFPA)

Diversity and Heritage

Francilene Parente (Ethnodevelopment College – UFPA)

Human rights and Heritage

Assis da Costa Oliveira (Ethnodevelopment College – UFPA)

18:30 – Opening of the Archaeology Laboratory Xingu River

Presents: Rainério Meireles, Coordinator of the Altamira Campus / UFPA

Maria Dorotéa Lima, Superintendent of 2th SR IPHAN, Pará

Denise P. Schaan, Vice-Coordinator of PPGA/UFPA

Eliane Sousa Faria, Coordinator of the Laboratory Xingu River

7 pm – Cocktail and exposition of archaeological parts

Realization

Federal University of Pará – University Campus
Altamira

College of Ethnodevelopment

Coordination: Francilene de Aguiar Parente

Tel: (55 93)9127-8554 faparente@gmail.com

Program of Affirmative Policies for the Indigenous People and Traditional People (PAPIT)

Coordination: Jaime Felipe Beltrão (UFPA)